Volunteer Email Use Policy

1. Purpose

To establish clear guidelines for the use of association-issued email addresses by volunteers, ensuring responsible, secure, and professional communication.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all volunteers who are provided with an email address by the Association, The Workshed Inner West Inc

3. Ownership and Control

- All email accounts created by the Association remain the property of the Association.
- The Association reserves the right to access, monitor, and reassign email accounts as needed.

4. Internal and External Use

- Internal Use:
Association-issued email addresses must be used for internal communication, recordkeeping, and any correspondence related to the volunteer's role.
- External Use:
When communicating with external parties (e.g., community partners, event speakers, sponsors), volunteers must:
 - Use their assigned Association email address.
 - CC the Association's main email account (info@theworkshed.org.au) in all external correspondence, unless otherwise approved by the management committee.

5. Security and Confidentiality

- Volunteers must not share passwords or grant access to others.

- Confidential information must be handled in accordance with the Association's Privacy Policy.

6. Transition and Handover

- Upon resignation, removal, or completion of volunteer duties:
 - The email account and all its contents (emails, contacts, documents) will be retained by the Association.
 - The account will be reviewed and may be reassigned to the next person assuming the same or similar role.
 - Volunteers must return or transfer any relevant correspondence or records before leaving.

7. Prohibited Use

- Volunteers must not use the Association's email accounts for:
 - Personal or commercial purposes unrelated to their role.
 - Sending or forwarding inappropriate, offensive, or spam content.
 - Representing the Association in matters they are not authorised to handle.

8. Breach of Policy

Any breach of this policy may result in the suspension of access, removal from volunteer duties, or further action as deemed appropriate by the management committee.
